Board of Trustees

- Trustee Jim Moreno thanked Chancellor Yglesias and Christian Teeter for helping to coordinate the submission of the Career and Technical Education Grant. On August 22, Trustee Moreno welcomed two new granddaughters.
- Trustee Jerry Patterson is looking forward to Constitution Week.
- Student Trustee Paul Bunch attended the American GI Forum. He also attended the Brown Act Training

Chancellor

- Ken Yglesias, Chancellor, is very proud to honor Lefty Lavrakis for his years of involvement and service to the Coast District.

Presidents

- Bob Dees, OCC President, OCC enrollment is up 5.4%. Dees expressed concern about all the ongoing construction but, on the whole, it was a good opening day. Staff and faculty were out on the campus giving directions on opening day.
- Ding-Jo Currie, CCC President, CCC enrollment is up 12% in head count and 20% in FTES, they are having a great start to the new semester. The Ask Me booth was a great success and a real help to students. Sept 7 is the official opening day meeting at the Le Jao Center.
- Wes Bryan, President of GWC announced that enrollment is up 5%. There is a lot of construction going on everywhere. The GWC Foundation event Chefs for Scholarships is Sunday, September 9.

Employee Representative Groups

- Barbara Price, President of Part-Time faculty, went to an NEA conference in Philadelphia where several presidential candidates spoke. She has a DVD of the speeches, if any one is interested in seeing the speeches in their entirety. She is also working with the Preschool Committee and is proud to be a part of it. The committee is requesting that preschool teachers have a bachelor's degree and Barbara is working to prove that community colleges are sufficient training for preschool teachers.

Student Government Organizations

- ASOCC President, Lynn Riddle. On September 17, 2007 it is the anniversary of the US Constitution and OCC will hold a Constitution Day with a series of 10 minute programs on constitutional issues. There will also be an essay contest, sponsored by the ASOCC, with a prize of $500.
- Vice President of the CCCSAC, Penny Mains, talked about the concert that Coastline students are putting together for The Africa Project. The concert will take place on September 23 at the Garden Grove Center.

Academic Senate Organizations

- OCC Academic Senate President, George Monahan announced that OCC is beginning to plan based on the accreditation recommendations. The Senate will be discussing the computer-use policy. Friday at 9am is OCC's Focus Day activities.

- GWC Academic Senate President, Stephanie Dumont. The senate met last week for orientation. Dumont read a statement in support of the Option 6 Hiring policy.
- Coastline Academic Senate President Cheryl Stewart announced that the senate held its first meeting and discussed the computer-use and hiring policies. The Basic Skills Initiative is a big focus for the Senate this year. A new program entitled Academic Senate Tuesdays will take place on alternate Tuesdays and will host brown-bag luncheons and will include training for MyCCC.
