REPORTS

Board of Trustees

- Student Trustee Paul Bunch talked about the first District Student Council meeting held recently. The DSC is having a kick-off meeting this Friday with activities and lunch and invites all board members and administrators.
- Trustee Walt Howald was in Sacramento to present at a Symposium for Fundraising. He attended an entrepreneurship in community colleges presentation. Trustee Howald also attended the ACCT Conference in San Diego and was selected to serve on their Diversity Committee.
- Trustee Armando Ruiz reported on the Coastline Little Saigon event. Trustee Ruiz commended Coastline for a great event. Trustee Ruiz was re-elected as the VP of Trust Foundation at the ACCT Conference.
- Trustee Mary Hornbuckle thanked everyone for their support and well-wishes after her surgery.
- Trustee Jim Moreno reported on his visit to Dartmouth College. He also attended the ACCT Conference where he met several trustees who share a lot of the same issues. One of the major themes at the conference was Career and Technical Education.
- Trustee Jerry Patterson reminded the Board to turn in their self-evaluations.

Chancellor

- Ken Yglesias, Chancellor, introduced Dr. Joyce Black, the interim Associate Vice Chancellor of Education Services.

Presidents

- Bob Dees, OCC President, reported on the Performing Arts Program and Festival dia de la Raza, which takes place October 14 in the OCC quad. Dees congratulated students on the latest edition of the Coast Report. Dees also congratulated Jim Carnett on his retirement.
- Ding-Jo Currie, CCC, President, reported that the Graphics and Publications won three awards at the National Conference for Marketing and Public Relations District 6 event. Currie also attended the Sacramento Pathway to Higher Education workshop with Assemblyman Lou Correa.
- Wes Bryan, GWC President, distributed the new visual arts brochure. Bryan also gave a presentation regarding the potential development of a Costco store on campus.

Employee Representative Groups

- Dean Mancina, CFCE/AFT President, discussed the Community College Initiative, which is being co-sponsored by teachers. He then gave a presentation about the initiative and covered access, affordability and funding re-structure.
- Neal Kelsey, Executive Director CFCE, thanked Dean Mancina for his presentation about the Community College Initiative

Student Government Organizations

- Lynne Riddle, ASOCC President, is working on a college initiative to find a legislator to carry a textbook bill that would make textbooks tax-exempt. SB832 requires disclosure of updated information and costs of textbooks and is at the Governor's desk. OCC's Student Government supports SB832

Academic Senate Organizations

- GWC Academic Senate President, Stephanie Dumont, talked about the on-campus club rush and the smoke-free campus initiative. She reported that the statewide Academic Senate XX initiative send handouts to all the college presidents.
- Bill Saichuck sat in for OCC Academic Senate President, George Monahan, and reported that the Senate is narrowing its goals and working on the basic skills initiative. He reported that the computer-use policy is also a very important issue for them.
