

Coast Board Connection

Highlights from the Coast Community College District
Board of Trustees Meeting

Board of Trustees

George E. Brown
Mary L. Hornbuckle
Walter G. Howald
Jerry Patterson
Armando Ruiz

Carlos Muñoz, Student Trustee

Chancellor

Kenneth D. Yglesias, Ed.D.

November 2, 2005

REPORTS

Board of Trustees

- Trustee Mary Hornbuckle attended the Magnolia Brunch and jazz concert at OCC. The event was a fundraiser for Hurricane Katrina victims. Hornbuckle complimented the jazz bands and stated that the jazz concert was very impressive. Hornbuckle discussed the resolution from the Orange County Legislative Task Force meeting about propositions 74, 75 and 76. She congratulated the student trustee, Carlos Munoz on encouraging students to vote.
- Trustee Walt Howald encouraged Carlos Munoz to work hard on the Community College Bill because it is very important to everyone.
- Trustee Jerry Patterson also attended the OCC Magnolia Brunch and thought it was great. He congratulated Coastline for continuing to be unique and innovative. Patterson attended the UCLA Economic Forecast discussing how the housing market is driving the economy in Southern California.
- Student Trustee, Carlos Munoz, announced he reviewed the three propositions (74, 75, 76) at the District Student Council Meeting and encouraged everyone to vote. Munoz attended the Scott Lay visit and is excited to work on the community college ballot measure. He attended the OCC Magnolia Brunch and congratulated the ASOCC on a wonderful event.

Chancellor

- Chancellor Kenneth Yglesias thanked OCC's Marilyn Dixon and Doug Bennett for working hard on the Magnolia Brunch. He announced he also attended the GWC Courtyard of Honor ceremony and the Scott Lay visit at OCC. Yglesias also attended the Teacher of the Year awards and congratulated Dennis Kelly, Stella Madrigal and Ning Yeh on their nominations.

Presidents

- John Breihan, CCC vice president of student services, announced that a training workshop was to be held at the One-Stop center was lead by NSF's Harry Unger.
- Wes Bryan, GWC president, commented on the Courtyard of Honor ceremony and how rewarding it was to see what graduates do after 10 years. Bryan announced the Hunchback will play at the GWC Theater from Nov. 4 to 20. Bryan stated the GWC Foundation is working on increasing its membership.

- Bob Dees, OCC president, discussed his participation on the Reedley College accreditation team. Dees thought the Magnolia Brunch was a great success—raising $10,000 for hurricane Katrina victims.

Employee Representative Groups

- Bob Fey, president of the part-time faculty union, announced campus equity week. Tables will be set up at OCC and GWC to educate the campuses. For more information go to www.campusequityweek.org.

Student Government Organizations

- Monica Pombo, Golden West College student, announced $400 was donated to the Katrina Fund and that the ASGWC was going to match the donation. Oct. 14 was Project Page Turner where little kids come to the college and students read to them. Pombo announced she attended the Leadership Summit and also congratulated Todd Bowen on being elected as an alternate to the statewide student advocacy group, the California Student Senate.
- Todd Bowen, president, ASOCC, and Scott Olsen extended their gratitude to Ken Yglesias and Mary Hornbuckle for attending the Magnolia Brunch and concert which raised $10,000 for Hurricane relief. Bowen discussed assembling a creation of Constitution and Bylaws for the California Student Senate.
- Jeri Elder, president, SAC, announced the 24th annual Seesaw Leadership Conference in San Jose. Elder also made a recommendation to collect 280 lids for Yoplait Lids 4 Life.

Academic Senate Organizations

- Nancy Jones, Coastline College Academic Senate President, announced she also attended the Teacher of the Year Awards and will also be attending and presenting at the statewide plenary session in Pasadena. Jones announced she will go to Washington next week to lobby for community colleges. Jones announced she had great discussions about distance learning and changes in course management systems.
- Stephanie Dumont, Golden West College Academic Senate President, congratulated Stella Madrigal on her Orange County Teacher of the Year nomination. Dumont announced she will attend the statewide plenary session in Pasadena.

Dumont said the senate will forward a list and ranking of faculty hires. She invited the Board to attend an open house hosted by the Executive Board on Nov. 22 from 12 to 2 p.m.

- Kevin Parker, Orange Coast College Academic Senate President, attended the Orange County Teacher of the Year awards and thought it was a wonderful event. Parker announced plenary session begins on Nov. 3 in Pasadena.

MEETING CALENDAR

November 16, 2005	Regular Meeting
December 14, 2005	Regular/Organizational Meeting