REPORTS

Board of Trustees

- Trustee George Brown announced he attended the GWC Police Academy graduation and wished everyone a happy holiday.
- Trustee Mary Hornbuckle said she enjoys attending events and enjoyed the Child Care Center lunch at OCC. Hornbuckle also attended the OCLTF breakfast with Jerry Patterson and Armando Ruiz. Hornbuckle thanked Chancellor Ken Yglesias for his twenty years of service at the District.
- Trustee Walt Howald congratulated all the retirees and wished everyone a happy holiday season.
- Trustee Jerry Patterson wished everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy Holiday.
- Trustee Armando Ruiz said the OCLTF breakfast was successful and wished everyone a Happy New Year with their family.
- Student Trustee, Carlos Munoz, announced the District Student Council meeting is Friday, Dec. 16 at Orange Coast College at 3 p.m.

Chancellor

- Kenneth Yglesias thanked and congratulated the retirees, John Breihan, Barbra Hollowell, Stan Johnson and Marilyn Dickson. Yglesias discussed the Voyager software project and thanked the six Sungard team members, Martha Parham, Kim Marchbank and the team leads for making the event a success and having over 450 attendees.

Presidents

- Ding-Jo Currie, CCC president, thanked Jerry Patterson and Mary Hornbuckle for attending the retirement party for John Breihan, Barbra Hollowell and Ed Decker and sincerely appreciates them for their dedication, integrity and grace. Currie thanked Vice Chancellor CM Brahmhatt for a good launch of project Voyager and wished everyone a happy break.
- Wes Bryan, GWC president, congratulated John Breihan and Barbra Hollowell on their retirements and discussed the Voyager logo and new shirts people received at the open house.
- Bob Dees, president of OCC, wished Stan Johnson and Marilyn Dickson good luck in their retirements. Dees congratulated Walt Howald on his 20 years of service. Dees also thanked ASOCC president Todd Bowen and the students for hosting an emeritus group for lunch. Dees thanked Erin Curtis for her service as the interim Dean of Business.

Employee Representative Groups

- Hilary Thomas, CFCE president, discussed how great these past months have been and feels so happy to be apart of this supportive organization. Thomas reported that this Board has been instrumental in helping to resolve issues and wished everyone a Happy Holiday.

Student Government Organizations

- Ashley Potter, ASGWC finance officer, discussed the success of the Angel tree project. Potter announced that they are making changes to the Finance Code in the student Bylaws. ASGWC President, Monica Pombo is resigning and the students are accepting applications for her replacement.
- Todd Bowen, president, ASOCC, announced they collected about 800 gifts for the Angel tree project.
- Geri Elder, CCC Student Advisory Council, discussed the Yoplait "Save Lids to Save Lives" promotion. The goal was 1,000 lids and they estimate they are two-thirds of the way there. The Student Advisory Council selected this year's SAC Grant recipients with 20 requests funded. Elder thanked Barbra Hollowell, John Breihan and Ed Decker on behalf of the students of Coastline.

Academic Senate Organizations

- Nancy Jones, Coastline College Academic Senate President, discussed the "My possibilities are endless" advertising campaign. Jones announced they are moving forward with the accreditation self-study.
- Stephanie Dumont, Golden West College Academic Senate President, thanked Carolyn Kirkpatrick and Walt Howald for all their years of service. This year's Hayward Award nominee is Dibakur Barua and Dumont announced they too are moving forward with the accreditation self-study.
