New Student Trustee Plans to be the Voice for Students

The Coast Community College District Board of Trustees swore in their newest member on Wednesday, June 3 – Student Trustee Robert Lane, an Honor Student at Golden West College. At a time when budget cuts are being debating, Lane takes on the role of speaking for the students of Coastline Community College, Golden West College and Orange Coast College.

“This students and teachers in the District have really enriched my life,” said Lane. “With this in mind, it is my goal to give back to the students by representing all of them to the best of my ability.”

Lane is no stranger to how government works; he was a student senator at Golden West College, is a member of the school’s Model United Nations program and was honored by Congressman Ed Royce with the prestigious Congressional Gold Medal of Honor.

Lane’s main goal is to lead by example in being an interface between the students and members of the board. He looks forward to providing leadership in the District Student Council which is composed of representatives of the student body from all three colleges. Lane is a member of the Alpha Sigma Gamma Honor Society and also holds the title of California’s Eagle Scout of the Year 2006-2008.

Lane was born in Long Beach and resides in Rossmoor.

The Coast Community College District is headquartered in Costa Mesa and is the ninth largest district in the country. The District’s three colleges - Coastline Community College in Fountain Valley, Golden West College in Huntington Beach and Orange Coast College in Costa Mesa -serve over 60,000 students each year providing traditional degree and transfer opportunities, career and technical training and community programs.
