

Summer in Paris, France

with the Coast Community College District
(Orange Coast College)

July 1 - August 1, 2010

Immerse yourself in experiential learning – Spend the Summer in Paris with ACCENT and the Coast Community College District (Orange Coast College). Explore Parisian historical and cultural sights, monuments, museums and galleries, as Paris becomes an extension of your classroom while you attend French language classes at the University of Paris - Sorbonne as well as a French Civilization class with visiting faculty at the ACCENT Center. Participants on the Summer in Paris Program live in double rooms at the Cité Universitaire international residence campus in Paris. The ACCENT Paris Center also provides support and guidance to students studying abroad. If you have questions about any aspect of this program, please feel free to contact us: ACCENT (800) 869-9291 or Professor Lia Raileanu at (714) 432-0202, ext. 25683 or lraileanu@occ.cccd.edu.

Student Services: The ACCENT Centers

ACCENT is an independent study abroad program provider with a multinational team of staff members who all have personal experiences in study abroad. With more than 20 years of experience coordinating high-quality overseas study programs, ACCENT works in partnership with U.S. colleges and universities to develop academically challenging and culturally enriching overseas study experiences in Paris, Florence, London, Madrid and Rome. Each city is home to a fully-staffed ACCENT Center that serves as a home base for program participants. The ACCENT San Francisco Center coordinates program enrollment and pre-departure preparation for students, helping to make their transition to living overseas as smooth as possible.

The ACCENT Paris Center is located in the historic Bastille district of central Paris, within easy métro/bus reach of the Latin Quarter and the City of Lights' incomparable museums and monuments. The ACCENT Center is open during the week for students to use the resource/lending library, computer lab, wireless connectivity, and study annex. The ACCENT staff in Paris provides a wide variety of on-site student services and is an invaluable resource for students who want to find out more about their host city.

Application and Enrollment

The Summer in Paris Program is open to students who are at least 18 years of age at the time of application. Program space is limited. Students should send in the enclosed application with the $250 non-refundable first payment as soon as possible to ACCENT. Upon receipt of your application and first payment, Orange Coast College and ACCENT will send you additional application and enrollment forms. Applications must be received by April 22, 2010. Beyond April 22, limited enrollment is allowed when space permits.

Transferable Academic Credit

The Summer in Paris Program is offered for transferable college credit through Orange Coast College or Golden West College. Orange Coast and Golden West Colleges are accredited California Community Colleges that will provide a transcript upon request for the coursework completed overseas. All courses are transferable to the University of California and California State University systems. Please verify the transferability of courses with your advisor or registrar before you apply.

Program Faculty

Lia Raileanu teaches the Beginning French course for the Summer in Paris Program. Professor Raileanu is an Orange Coast College French instructor. She is a professor, writer, workshop presenter and teaching consultant, highly specialized in the methodology of teaching foreign languages. A successful organizer and inspiring teacher, she has conducted the Summer in Paris Program with the Coast Community College District since 1992.

Cultural Program

Cultural learning is an integral part of the program. Guided visits of the following museums and historical sites are a mandatory part of the program for all students: Versailles, the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, the Centre Pompidou, the Orangerie, the Latin Quarter, the St. Germain Quarter, the Marais, Montmartre, the Tuileries Gardens, the Bridges of the Seine River, the Opera house, as well as visits to several other historical monuments. Students attend two performances of ballet/opera and classical music.

Optional excursions available on the weekends during the program include one-day excursions to Chartres/Giverny ($90) and Fontainebleau/Vaux-le-Vicomte ($90) as well as an optional three-day/two-night excursion to Normandy and Brittany ($360). More information regarding optional excursions will be provided upon receipt of application. Excursions are chosen based on the academic curriculum and are subject to change.

Academic Curriculum

During the overseas orientation, students complete a placement exam at the Sorbonne to determine the class level appropriate to their language skills. Classes range in size from 15-25 students. Students can expect to be in class approximately four hours per day, five days per week.

Students with no prior French take the Elementary French 1 course taught by Professor Raileanu at the ACCENT Center. This course does not require a placement test.

French CCC/GWC/OCC 180: Elementary French 1 5 semester units
Will enable students to understand native French and to express themselves in basic situations. Emphasis on listening, comprehension and speaking with opportunities outside the classroom for reinforcement. This course is specially designed for students with no prior study of French.

The following classes are held in the morning at the Sorbonne.

French CCC/GWC/OCC 185: Elementary French 2 5 semester units
This course develops knowledge of the spoken and written expression as well as knowledge of vocabulary, grammar, and phonetics. Includes 10 hours of small group phonetics work. Taught entirely in French at the University of Paris – Sorbonne.

French OCC 280: Intermediate French 3 4 semester units
Continuation of French 185. Further study and review of French grammar and vocabulary. Oral work, reading of contemporary French materials and written composition of current topics at the intermediate level. Includes 10 hours of small group phonetics work. Taught entirely in French at the University of Paris – Sorbonne.

French OCC 285: Intermediate French 4 4 semester units
Continuation of French 280. Speaking, reading and writing at a more advanced level. Includes 10 hours of small group phonetics work. Taught entirely in French at the University of Paris – Sorbonne.

French OCC 190: Advanced French 5 3 semester units
This course will further enhance speaking, reading and writing competency. It includes text study and advanced grammar as well as 10 hours of small group phonetics work. Language lab at students' disposition. Taught entirely in French at the University of Paris – Sorbonne.

The following course is held in the afternoons and includes visits to museums and historical sites.

French OCC 199AB: French Culture 2 semester units
The course will be held at different sites throughout Paris to introduce students to the culture and history of France through on-site lectures and discussion.
