WHY STUDY ABROAD?

Sure, study abroad looks great on a transfer application, and employers love to see it on a resume, but there are so many more reasons to study abroad. Our students have returned from previous trips with an insight into their secret reasons to study abroad.

ORANGE COAST COLLEGE English professor and award-winning author and screenwriter Raymond Obstfeld will be taking a group of students to Cambridge, England. After two weeks of classes at OCC, students will live and study for five weeks in the beautiful and historic town of Cambridge, home to one of the world's most prestigious universities.

THE PERFECT SUMMER BREAK PROGRAM

Orange Coast College English professor and award-winning author and screenwriter Raymond Obstfeld will be taking a group of students to Cambridge, England. After two weeks of classes at OCC, students will live and study for five weeks in the beautiful and historic town of Cambridge, home to one of the world's most prestigious universities.

WHY STUDY IN CAMBRIDGE?

Cambridge is a beautiful place to live and study. Home to the world-famous University (which is now over 800 years old), the town also boasts some of the country's finest museums, art galleries and theatres. Shopping, entertainment and nightlife are all within easy reach of the accommodation and teaching spaces - the historic city centre has something for everyone.

Not only is the town itself a wonderful place to study abroad, it is also ideally located to ensure easy access to the rest of the UK and Europe. In the past, students have taken advantage of the 45 minute train ride to London and explored many of the sights in the UK capital, from Hyde Park and Buckingham Palace, to the National Theatre and the Harry Potter Studio.

WHY STUDY ABROAD?

Sure, study abroad looks great on a transfer application, and employers love to see it on a resume, but there are so many more reasons to study abroad. Our students have returned from previous trips with an insight into their secret reasons to study abroad.

1. Live in student dorms on one of the most prestigious university campuses in the world - a great taste of university life in the UK.

2. Learn something about yourself that will impact your future - from the love of a different culture to an interest in a new academic direction.

3. Meet a wide variety of people and make friends for life. On a study abroad program you'll never be short of a travel buddy!

4. Experience the adventure of travel in Europe with the security of a 24 hour-a-day emergency contact on campus in the UK.

5. Enjoy the independence and freedom of being away from home and take the opportunity to have the time of your life!

ABOUT US

Reach Study Abroad is part of Reach Cambridge, a company specialising in residential study programs in Cambridge, UK. Reach Cambridge was founded in 2004 and we have been running these courses for over 9 years with great success.

The mission of Reach Cambridge is to widen the horizons of its students with inspiring experiences, world-class teaching and integration with British culture. Our company is recognized by the BAC (British Accreditation Council) as providing excellent study programs with high-quality teaching and student support. Classes are combined with activities and excursions to give students a broad and enriching cultural experience - a supervisory department made up of Cambridge University students or alumni ensure that a plethora of activities are planned for each group.
Students will reside in one of the University of Cambridge's many colleges. Students are provided with their individual dorm rooms for five weeks. Half board meals are provided in the price of the program, Monday to Thursday. Normally all breakfasts are in one of the college's stunning formal dining halls, with two dinners also being held. Students are able to experience dining in one of Cambridge's finest establishments. Previously, students have stayed at Girton College and Sidney Sussex College.
